Mountains rearing straight up from the sea, gorges, and valleys and yet more glorious mountains. There are few places in the world where high mountains so close to the sea combine with an often perfect climate. Crete's rugged terrain is an adventurer's paradise and in many respects the culmination of the Greek experience. Its natural beauty is equaled only by the richness of its history. The island after all is the birthplace of the first advanced society in European soil.

Our trip starts in the bustling city of Heraklion and after visiting one of the most important archaeological sites of the Mediterranean, Knossos, we'll drive towards the enchanting city of Rethymno, which will be our base for the next two days. Our trip will end in the picturesque city of Chania, probably the most charming of Crete.

This trip combines the sensual pleasures of Crete's sublime cuisine, delicious wine, and Mediterranean sunshine with the physical pleasure of an active holiday walking through some of the most beautiful countryside in the world.

Trip Highlights

- Walk in the footsteps of Minoans in the palace of Knossos, Crete's most important archaeological site
- Immerse yourself in the culture and lifestyle of Crete and learn to cook

authentic Cretan dishes

- Drift around the historical city of Chania, one of the longest continuously inhabited city sites in the world
- Explore Imbros, one of the most fascinating gorges in the island

Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Heraklion and welcome dinner

Heraklion is the fifth largest city of Greece. In order to experience it you have to penetrate the modern façade of the city and you will discover its attractive features. After all, it is the birthplace of El Greco and Nikos Kazantzakis and Heraklion province hosts some of the most fascinating Minoan sites in all of Crete.

Today we will meet at our hotel for an introductory talk and afterwards we will wander the streets and have our first dinner. Our dinner features delicious local ingredients and traditional Cretan dishes. Based on simple techniques, it's the variety of local produce that distinguishes the dishes: mountain herbs and greens, bulbs, unique cheeses, fresh fish, and the famous Cretan oil.

Day 2

Archaeological museum, the palace of Knossos and winery visit

Crete's natural beauty is equaled only by the richness of its history. Once here, grab the opportunity to start your day visiting the Archaeological museum of Heraklion. The museum houses the most important collection of Minoan art in the world. It's a great introduction to our visit in Knossos, Crete's must-see historical attraction, which will follow. The Minoans were ruling big parts of the Aegean from their palace in Knossos some 4000 years ago, giving the area a great strategic and cultural importance.

From culture to cultivation we will head towards the wine country of Heraklion. Nestled in a picturesque landscape of rolling hills and verdant valleys, more than twenty wineries contribute to the rich winemaking tradition dating back to Minoan times. Our chosen stop is a family estate crafting exceptional wines since 1966, focusing on rare local varieties and single-variety productions. Here, we'll enjoy a guided tour through vineyards, cellar, and vine-museum, followed by the essential pleasure of tasting the local wines!

Day 3

Visit Koronekes olive farm and drive to Rethymnon

Today, grab your hat, sunglasses, sunscreen and comfortable shoes for an easy guided walk in an organic olive field with more than 2 centuries old olive trees. You will see that they are farmed with respect and care to preserve the natural flavors, aromas, and polyphenols.

How does the farming impact these flavors and healthy benefits? What are the challenges we face in organic farming? How and when do we harvest the olives? These are just some of the topics, the Master Miller, will be discussing with you. After lunch in the nearby village of Archanes, we will drive towards the Mediterranean pearl, city of Rethymnon. In the afternoon we will have time to explore the labyrinthine lanes of the historic quarter, which still preserves much of its Venetian and Turkish appearance.

Day 4

Arkadi Monastery and Ancient Eleftherna hike

In the morning we will drive towards Arkadi Monastery, the most celebrated of Crete's numerous monasteries which has a fine Venetian church and it is an emblem of the island's struggle for independence. We will continue towards, Ancient Eleftherna, a Dorian built settlement, which lies in the foothills of Psiloritis, the highest mountain of Crete. We start our hike from the ancient Acropolis of the town, and on our way we will pass the remarkable Roman cisterns, which are carved into the hill's west side, the Necropolis and a 3rd century BC ancient bridge. Our hike finishes in the tiny village of Margarites, known for its pottery. Learn about the traditional techniques from a local potter who derives inspiration for his ceramics from Minoan and Byzantine originals.

Day 5

Cooking class and drive to Chania

Today we will drive toward the quaint village of Vamos for a cooking class which takes place in an old olive press dating from 1846 with Venetian arches and large millstones in the centre. This unique setting will enliven your "journey" into the aromas and tastes of traditional Cretan Cuisine. Of course, we will eat what we have cooked!

Early in the afternoon we will drive to Chania, Crete's most beautiful town. It's perfect setting with the White Mountains as background, lively harbor, historical remains, busy market, and nearby beaches make it the ideal spot. The winding old streets conceal charming boutique hotels and some of the island's best dining options.

Day 6

Hike Imbros gorge

Today we will head towards Imbros gorge at the south side of the island, driving by the rugged interior, which is largely untouched by mass tourism. A dreamy mosaic of sleepy villages and fertile valleys, dotted with Byzantine churches.

The pine tree-lined Imbros gorge was part of the route that linked the city of Chania with the Chora Sfakion village. Here, you'll set off on your three-hour hike, following footpaths through wildflower meadows. Keep watch for Crete's 'kri-kri' wild goats as you go. And reach for your camera at the most spectacular section, where everything narrows into a 2-meter passageway twisting steep, 300-foot walls.

Day 7

Swim at Balos and farewell dinner

Today we will hop on a 4WD and drive towards Balos lagoon, one of Chania's most prized gems which cannot be missed. It is an exotic sandy beach of turquoise waters with a unique geomorphological shape located on the northwest side of the prefecture. Renowned for its untamed natural beauty, it stands proudly among the most beautiful beaches in the country. Take some time to relax and soak it all in before saying goodbye to this coastal paradise.

In the evening, you'll be free to delve deeper into the Venetian city, exploring its enchanting streets and the numerous local designer shops. Later, we'll reunite for our farewell dinner, a perfect culmination of our time together!

Itinerary Changes

We are constantly updating our unique itineraries based on new information and experiences available. The walks, accommodations, and visits listed may be adjusted. The itineraries presented are subject to modification and change by Tripin Adventures. We reserve the right, without penalty, to make changes in the published itinerary whenever, in our judgment, conditions warrant, or if we deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience, or safety of participants.

Terrain

This trip level is Easy active and is suitable for most people that are in fairly good physical condition. The itinerary includes walking tours in cities and villages, and two days with hikes of 2-3 hours.

Although the paths are quite well-kept the terrain often tends to be very stony and rocky, during the gorge-walking. You will mostly be walking on footpaths, mountain trails and on some tarmac roads.

Condition Grading

Easy active

Trips designated “Easy Active” are perfect for first-timers, or travelers looking for a mild physical challenge. A typical day will consist of 1-3 hours of activity.

Starting point and getting there

Starting point is: Heraklion

Getting There & Away: Crete biggest airport is about 5km east of the city center. There are many flights that connect Heraklion airport with Athens. Moreover there are many direct flights from various cities in Europe. Heraklion ferry port is located 500m east of the city center and is connected with major ports in Greece including Piraeus (Athens port), Mykonos and Santorini.

Getting around: We can arrange for a transfer from the airport or the port to your hotel. If you want to come by yourself there is a bus line connecting the airport to the center of the town and there is also the option of the taxi. From the port you could take a taxi to your hotel or even walk for about 25 minutes.

Food

Simple, nutritious and flavorsome, the food is one of the pleasures of travel through Greece. Rustic Greek Cuisine reflects the history and bounty of its diverse regions and relies in the fresh, seasonal home-grown produce and generally simple, unfussy cooking that brings out the rich flavors of the Mediterranean.

Greece's relaxed and hospitable dinning culture makes it easy to get into the local spirit. Greeks love to eat out and share impossibly big meals family style. Given the long summers and mild winters, alfresco dining is central to the dining experience. Service could be slow by Western standards, but why being in rush either way.

As a rule our groups tend to eat together to enable you to taste a larger variety of dishes and enjoy each other's company. There's no obligation to do this though. Wherever possible we will cater for dietary needs for any included meals, but there may be times when those with special requirements may need to provide their own. Note that alcohol and soda are not included.

Weather

Spring, summer and fall in Greece are sunny and warm. The daytime temperatures average 25-30 C though temperatures in the 35s are possible in the summer months. Nighttime temperatures cool off slightly to 20° C. Rain showers are rare in the islands, but it's often breezy and rainy on the coast.

Gear Checklist

Greece has a temperate climate. Base your clothing on the "layering system", if it is hot you can "peel off" layers quickly, if it is cooler and windy you can quickly “dress up”. The lighter you travel, the easier you travel. Use your best judgement and pack as lightly as possible. You will appreciate light luggage towards the end of your trip

Currency & Banking

Greece has adopted the Euro as its currency. The easiest way to obtain local cash is from an ATM. Greek ATMs accept cards bearing the Cirrus, EC, Euro card, Visa and Plus symbols. If you take cash, US or Canadian Dollars can be easily exchanged at banks. Most major credit cards, Visa, MasterCard and American Express are accepted.

It is advisable to have some Euros with you upon arrival to be used for a taxi if necessary.

You may want to check the website www.xe.com for current exchange rates.

Passports

You must have a passport valid for at least 6 months beyond the conclusion of your trip. Please make sure that you have blank pages in your passport for your visa (if required), entry and exit stamps (one for each). Please make a copy to take with you in the event yours is lost or stolen and keep it separate from your actual passport.

Visas

Currently a Greek Tourist Visa is not required for citizens of Canada, United States, Britain and Australia. If you hold another passport, please check online <http://visacentral.com/visas.php>
